Faith Family...

Dr. Quentin Self
Senior Pastor

What a blessing and privilege it is to finally be here with you in Texas. I am still having a hard time believing that I get to pastor a church like Shiloh Terrace. You have such a wonderful legacy of faithfulness to the Lord. I am thrilled to see what lies ahead in this new season of ministry together.

In my first sermon as your senior pastor, I gave three promises for how we will approach ministry together. These promises are rooted in a biblical principle of how God changes lives. The principle is as follows: God changes lives when people hear the gospel from the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit. Regardless of the methods we use, the models we adopt, or the resources we have, this principle stays the same. God changes lives when people hear the gospel from the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Based on that principle, then, here are three promises to guide our ministry together:

1. We will be intensely devoted to the gospel.
2. We will be intensely devoted to the Word of God.
3. We will be intensely devoted to seeking God's power in prayer.

"Intensely devoted." Those two words must characterize the way we approach our mission. So, ask yourself today: "Am I intensely devoted to Jesus Christ and His mission of making disciples?" Jesus will not allow half-hearted devotion, and half-hearted Christians will not make it in the days to come. Brothers, sisters, let's be a devoted church.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Quentin

WAITLISTED: A 4-WEEK SERIES ON DOUBTS & QUESTIONS

SERIES OVERVIEW: You know that feeling you get when someone makes you a big promise? You probably feel excited, but you might feel a little skeptical as well. In this 4-week series, we'll meet a handful of people from Scripture who each spent a long time waiting on God. We'll discover that God has a plan, but we might have to wait for it, and we'll be reminded that, while we're waiting, God is faithful, and God is listening.
