Every Blessing

Philippians 3:1-11

Dr. Quentin Self

When we cling to good things as our source of joy, it _____ us from holding on to the only _____ source of joy.

You can't have _____ joy _____ Jesus.

There is a fundamental difference between the _____ of _____ and the _____ of _____ with Jesus.

We lose our joy when we _____ the enjoyment of blessings with the joy of _____.

Christian joy consists of overwhelming _____ and unshakable _____.

"For no one is a Jew who is merely one _____, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one _____, and circumcision is a matter of the _____, by the _____ and not by the letter." Romans 2:28-29

Confidence in the flesh is to stake our _____ on the good things we've been _____ or have _____.

We cannot _____ to the good things in life and take hold of _____ at the same time.

To count a blessing as loss is to _____ its _____ to give you _____.

When we count the good things as loss, we gain the _____ and _____ of Christ's presence.

"If you try to _____ to your life, you will _____ it. But if you _____ your life for my sake, you will _____ it." Jesus, Matthew 16:25
